Description

A very elegant Louis XVI style chaise longue, with harmonious lines inspired by classic 18th-century designs. Its characteristic shape, with a rolled back and opposing armrests, offers a graceful and refined silhouette, ideal for a living room, boudoir, or elegant bedroom. It is upholstered in a superb striped fabric in deep shades of green, burgundy, and beige, which particularly highlights its proportions. The whole is enhanced by rich trimmings: decorative fringes running along the entire base and elegant tassels at the ends of the armrests, attesting to meticulous upholstery work. The padding is comfortable, and the piece is in very good condition, ready to be placed. This chaise longue has a beautiful decorative presence and will immediately bring a chic and warm touch to any interior. Dimensions:
