Description

kobeshimi with its box and bag ,unsigned Kobeshimi's face is a mask of anger and moral indignation that threatens to explode, except for his closed, metal eyes. The mask is quite realistic: his mouth curves downwards, his tense muscles seem to tremble with the enormous effort of self-control, his eyes shine fixedly, and his complexion is red with vehement emotion and repressed anger. Kobeshimi became standardized at an early stage, and few differences are noticeable in its execution.
