Description

An elegant bust of a young woman, crafted from Carrara marble and bronze. The head, finely sculpted in high-quality white marble, features soft features and a delicate expression, with her gaze slightly lowered. The hairstyle, styled in a chignon, is rendered with great finesse and recalls the classical aesthetic of late 19th-century European sculpture. The bust and garment are made of bronze with a warm patina. The drapery is richly detailed and adorned with a flower on the chest and a decorative fringe, creating a beautiful interplay of light and shadow. The contrast between the purity of the marble and the warmth of the bronze lends the piece an elegant and decorative presence. The work rests on a base of green veined marble. It is signed Nasi on the back, an Italian sculptor active in the late 19th or
