Description

Hermès Doctor's Bag in Burgundy Leather - 20th Century. An elegant and authentic doctor's or notary's bag by Hermès, crafted from beautiful smooth leather in a deep burgundy color with a particularly attractive natural patina. This classic model, emblematic of the Hermès house, is distinguished by its structured and generous shape, its rigid central handle, and its original metal clasp, designed to ensure a wide and practical opening. This type of bag was traditionally used by doctors, notaries, or businessmen, demonstrating the house's expertise in high-quality, utilitarian leather goods. The leather displays a beautiful patina from use, with a few light marks that attest to its history, without compromising the piece's sturdiness or elegance. Overall, it remains in good condition, perfectly
