Description

Large Enamel Advertising Sign "Maison Mongourdièr - Founded in 1825" - 3 meters. Exceptional large antique enamel advertising sign in bright colors, bearing the name "Maison Mongourdièr - Founded in 1825." This remarkable sign is distinguished by its spectacular length of approximately 3 meters, a particularly impressive size that likely made it a facade sign intended to be seen from afar. The graphic composition is elegant and perfectly legible: a deep blue background, framed by red panels, highlights white typographic lettering very characteristic of large 20th-century commercial signs. At the ends are the words "Maison" and "Founded in 1825," recalling the long history and prestige of this establishment. The overall aesthetic is typical of antique enamel advertising signs, sought after today for their authenticity and strong decorative appeal. The sign has a beautiful patina from use, with some traces of time that enhance its charm and bear witness to its history. With its monumental size, contrasting red, blue, and white colors, and elegant typography, this sign makes a superb decorative element for a contemporary interior, loft, boutique, or vintage advertising collection. A rare piece in this size, ideal for collectors of large-format signs and vintage advertising.

Dimensions: Length: approximately 3 meters.

Condition: Good overall condition with signs of wear and patina consistent with its age.
