Description

Empire Style Solid Walnut Commode with Detached Columns, 19th Century. This beautiful Empire style commode in solid walnut features four drawers in the front, surmounted by a drawer in the frieze. The piece is framed by detached columns adorned with gilt bronze rings resting on square bases, typical of Empire style furniture. The front is embellished with bronze mounts, including keyhole escutcheons and bronze drawer pulls. The top drawer is decorated with an elegant, finely chased bronze frieze with a vegetal motif. The sides are paneled, and the top displays a beautiful walnut patina. A French piece from the 19th century, inspired by First Empire furniture. An elegant and decorative piece offering ample storage. Dimensions: Height: 90 cm Width: 129.5 cm Depth: 66 cm Period: 19th
