Description

Elegant Louis XVI style bed crafted in wood and enriched with refined decorative marquetry. The structure features beautifully inlaid panels with floral and geometric motifs, highlighted by a central medallion that enhances the overall decorative composition. The design is sober and balanced, reflecting the neoclassical taste of the late 18th century, while the slender tapered legs give the piece a sense of lightness and harmony. The quality of craftsmanship and the richness of the inlays make this piece particularly charming and suitable for both classic interiors and refined contemporary spaces. A piece of furniture with strong visual presence and excellent craftsmanship, ideal for period-style interiors as well as elegant modern settings.
