Description

Large late 19th-century temple lantern lamp in the shape of a pagoda. A very beautiful lamp in solid bronze, worked and polychrome enameled, of Asian origin, China or Japan. In very good overall condition with more recent electrification in excellent working order. The fine quality of the chasing and casting gives this highly decorative piece an undeniable overall quality. A very attractive size, 68cm high. This object, divided into three interlocking parts, is very stable. Delivery is possible via secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection is possible on site at Mas d'Avalrich, Montéscot 66200 (Tel: +33 6 11 14 25 33) or at my stand at the Montpellier trade fair every two months.
