Description

Beautiful Venetian mirror in engraved glass with floral decoration, Italian work from Murano, circa 1940-1950. The mirror features an elegant frame composed of beveled glass panels finely engraved with floral arabesques. The decoration is enhanced by a row of glass beads and small decorative rosettes fixed with screws, typical of Venetian mirrors from the mid-20th century. The openwork crest and the curved outline of the panels give the piece a refined decorative presence characteristic of Italian Venetian mirrors of this period. This mirror fits perfectly in both classical and contemporary interiors, above a console, in an entrance hall or in an elegant bathroom. Dimensions: Height: 87 cm Width: 48 cm Period: circa 1950 Origin: Italy, Murano work Condition: good overall condition. Careful
