Description

A period Art Deco display cabinet in Macassar ebony, opening with two doors in the lower section and a glass door with a nickel-plated metal frame in the upper section. This piece is of very high quality. It rests on a thick, molded base. Inside, the lower section features an adjustable shelf on racks, while the upper section has two glass shelves with mirrored backs to showcase the displayed items. This cabinet is in excellent condition, with only a few small, discreet pits on the metal frame.
