Description

A Transitional commode opening with two drawers without crossbars. Richly ornamented with marquetry: On the front and sides, rectangular Greek-style sycamore frames are set against rosewood and amaranth wood backgrounds; these frame the interior spaces. The corners, rounded at the front, have simulated fluting, while the back has projecting edges; like the base, they are made of amaranth and rosewood. The backgrounds within the spaces are made of sycamore. At the center of the front, they feature a decoration of a bundle of military attributes against a vegetal background (flags, breastplate, quiver, fasces, sword, etc.). On either side, there is a decoration of antique-style urns whose unusual angular arrangement creates a perspective effect. On the sides, a vase motif and
