Description

The candelabra feature patinated bronze cherubs holding the candle arms, creating an elegant contrast between gilt bronze and patinated bronze, typical of high-quality Parisian production from the second half of the 19th century. The enamel dial is signed E. Godeau, Paris, a Parisian clockmaker active around 1870, referenced in the Tardy Dictionary of French Clockmakers. The movement has been fully serviced and the clock is in perfect working order, sold complete with its key and pendulum. The garniture, inspired by the Louis XVI style, is characteristic of the refined decorative production of the Napoleon III period. Clock dimensions: Height: 36 cm Width: 18 cm Depth: 10 cm Worldwide shipping available - professional packaging.
