Description

Set of four lacquered and carved panels, originating from China, early 20th century. A very interesting series of four panels decorated with Chinese vases adorned with bouquets. Excellent overall condition and original gilt bronze fittings. Note the quality of the craftsmanship and the originality of the lower sections decorated with animals. A very beautiful decorative set from around the 1930s that will certainly make a statement. A good size at 91.5 cm, ideal for decorating a piece of furniture, for example. Note the softness of the colors and the quality of the patina. Delivery available in France and worldwide via secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection possible on site at Mas d'Avalrich, Montéscot 66200, France
