Description

Authentic solid walnut ship's chest, featuring its typical nailed brass corner reinforcements found on marine furniture. The front has a recessed bronze pull handle and an original escutcheon keyhole escutcheon. Remarkable hand-crafted construction with wide dovetail joints and a flat-banded base testifies to the quality craftsmanship of the early 19th century. In beautiful condition with a deep honey patina and period lace hinges. A characterful, understated, and robust piece, perfect for a cabinet of curiosities or a nautical collection. - Free shipping within mainland France and Corsica - Careful packaging - Tracked shipping within 24/48 hours - Payment accepted by credit card, bank transfer, or PayPal
