Description

DescriptionThis vintage mid-century oleograph depicts an abstract seascape with two stylized sailing boats set within a simplified coastal landscape. Broad planes of green, ochre, and warm orange form the horizon and water, while elongated pale shapes suggest sails rising vertically against the background. The composition reflects the decorative abstraction popular in mid-20th-century European interiors, using simplified forms and textured printed surfaces that emulate the appearance of oil paint.ArtistArtist unknown.Artist DetailsThe work reflects mid-century decorative abstraction, where seascapes and landscapes were reduced to bold shapes and color fields. Oilographs from this period were commonly produced to reproduce the visual effect of original oil paintings while
