Description

I present here a highly successful portrait of a young woman with a regular face, her hair styled in a chignon, her shoulders draped in a beautiful early 20th-century shawl (circa 1910). Her lovely fair complexion, her sidelong glance, and her beautifully expressive mouth--everything in this beautiful painting inspires admiration. The surrealism of the vibrant red against the pale, opalescent background, the masterful use of diffused light, and the deliberate brushstrokes--this lovely bust both intrigues and makes her feel present and familiar. It is a beautiful, inspired work that vividly portrays her, which is a definite plus, as she is indeed beautiful. This oil on canvas, in the standard 12F format, is wonderfully framed within a generous, undulating cornice adorned with patinated old
