

Painting Of The Guerneur Mill In Guern Under The Snow By Georges Boucard, Morbihan, Brittany

690 EUR

Signature : Georges Boucard (1895-1980)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Length : 72

Width : 55

Description

Oil on wood probably painted during the winter of 1943-1944 and located at the Guerneur mill in the commune of Guern, in Morbihan (56) in Brittany. Signed lower left G. Boucard for Georges Boucard*, a painter from Lorient who took refuge in Guern in 1943 for a few months following the bombing of the town in February 1943. Another painting by Georges Boucard is for sale, depicting the ship Adieu Vat moored in Saint Goustan, port of Auray, painted in November 1943. Good original condition, original frame also, though warped on the right, the panel is slightly wrinkled. The canvas measures 54.5cm x 38.5cm. Shipping available via Chronopost: France EUR40, Europe EUR80, Other EUR160. *Georges Boucard was born on October 23, 1895, in La Roche-sur-Yon in the

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300

Vendée region. Married to Simone Fontaine, he worked as a sign and decorative painter before dedicating himself to painting full-time. He was honorary president of the AC 14-18 painters' association. 39-45 and Knight of the Academic Palms. The city of Lorient owns a beautiful painting by this painter, it represents the Saint Louis church in Lorient after the fire due to the bombings of 1943. From time to time paintings by this discreet painter come up for auction.