

Antique 19th-century Stone Sink - Patinated Limestone Basin

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Stone

Description

Superb antique stone sink dating from the 19th century, a true testament to French rural and artisanal architecture. Carved from a solid block of limestone, it boasts an exceptional natural patina, acquired over time, which lends it all its charm and authenticity. Featuring its original drain spout sculpted into the stone, this antique sink combines original functionality with a raw aesthetic. Dimensions visible in the last photo. To be collected from Mouzieys-Panens (Tarn). Very heavy item - please arrange for appropriate handling.
