Description

A truly impressive ornate chandelier, made in France in the early 1920s. This chandelier boasts an antique and romantic design. Its gilt metal frame has an aged bronze finish. Richly decorated, it features arms reminiscent of vines and leaf motifs that lend it an organic, floral appearance. Crystals are ubiquitous. Large teardrop-shaped crystal drops hang from the arms and center, while smaller faceted beads and elongated prisms complete the ensemble. Many are arranged in floral clusters, with petal-shaped crystals radiating from darker, circular centers, reinforcing the botanical theme. It holds six candle-style bulb holders, topped with cream-colored cylindrical covers reminiscent of traditional wax candles. These are set in small, flower-shaped holders, in keeping with the
