Description

Dining chairs by Rudy Verelst for Novalux 4 vintage chairs with chrome-plated legs and burgundy skai seat and back. The chrome-plated tubular frame gives the chairs a slightly industrial look, while the rounded seat and backrest create a comfortable seating experience. Verelst was known for his attention to simplicity and geometric clarity, giving his designs a timeless quality that feels both modern and nostalgic. These chairs clearly demonstrate this, as the chrome forms a sleek interplay of lines and the soft shapes of the seat provide an elegant counterbalance. Seat has a diameter of 41 cm. Seat height 45 cm, 53 cm wide, 47 cm deep and 78 cm high. The skai upholstery has very slight signs of wear, but remains neat and uniform, while the chrome looks surprisingly fresh. Thanks to their
