Description

American School : Movement :

Post-Impressionism. A strong Cézanne influence is evident in this beautifully executed Post-Impressionist work by the American artist Martha Walter. Signature : inscribed in the lower right corner of the work. Medium: watercolor on paper. Note: some foxing, slightly faded. The work remains, however, entirely satisfactory. The intervention of a paper conservator for cleaning with a view to long-term preservation would be welcome but is not mandatory. Galerie Le Mont des Arts only intervenes very exceptionally on works requiring restoration, in order to ensure complete transparency regarding the artwork offered to its future clients, who always prefer to involve their usual conservators. A video can be sent upon request. Provenance: Galerie Le Mont
