Description

A mahogany ministerial desk in the Egyptian Revival style, richly adorned with gilt bronze mounts. On either side of the aisle are two cabinets with doors decorated with winged victory bronzes, revealing a series of drawers. This central desk is ornamented on all sides, with the sides featuring medallions depicting the bust of Medusa. The apron incorporates three drawers with openwork bronze keyholes. The leather-covered top offers a 150cm x 80cm work surface, supplemented on each side by two pull-out slides, 60cm long and 80cm wide. This desk is in very good condition, having undergone no restoration; all the bronze ornamentation is present. The locks are functional and come with attractive original keys.
