Description

Louis XV Style Flat Desk in Walnut with Gilt Leather Top - 19th Century. This elegant Louis XV style flat desk in walnut is a French piece from the 19th century. It rests on four cabriole legs, characteristic of the Louis XV style, and features a beautifully shaped apron. The front opens with two drawers fitted with turned wooden knobs. The top is covered in tan leather decorated with a gilt-tooled border and a central motif, providing a generous writing surface.

Thanks to its meticulous finish on all sides, this desk can also be placed in the center of a room and used as a writing table or a central writing desk. An elegant and decorative piece of furniture, ideal for an office or a classic interior.

Two drawers in the front. Dimensions: Height: 76 cm Length: 120 cm Depth: 58 cm Period: 19th
