Description

Oil on paper mounted on canvas, signed lower left - Titled and countersigned on the back, Montmartre - Place Blanche - The Moulin Rouge. Laurent Bruno Emile, a Montmartre painter born in 1928, embodies the spirit of this Parisian neighborhood through the authenticity of his works. This very typical painting, depicting the famous Moulin Rouge in vibrant colors, truly illustrates the charm of this district. Mounting is a technique that involves fixing a light surface to a more solid support using a strong adhesive called marouflage glue, which hardens as it dries. This technique is particularly used in fine art painting. Shipping costs outside the EU will be quoted separately.
