Description

Description Original vintage signed pastel drawing by Batra depicting a seated lady and child rendered with soft, expressive strokes and a luminous palette. Layers of warm oranges, rose tones, and muted turquoise create a gentle contrast against the neutral ground, while the loose pastel application gives the figures a softly blurred, impressionistic quality. The composition focuses on the quiet closeness between the two figures and conveys a sense of emotional warmth. Artist Unidentified at present. Artist Details Unidentified at present. Movements Modern Figurative Expressionism Artist Influenced by Influenced by the figurative pastel traditions of Edgar Degas and Mary Cassatt. Frame Condition Housed in a vintage metallic frame with dark matting showing
