Description

Oil painting on canvas, signed lower right M. Felbier. Titled and dated on the reverse: Juggler 1961 - Sint Niklaas - Breckpot Gallery, Antwerp. Measuring 70cm x 60cm excluding the frame, 91cm x 81cm overall. Depicting a juggler, painted in 1961. Maurice Felbier, 1903-1991, painter and wood sculptor born in Antwerp. He studied at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts (1919-1922) and at the NHISKA (National Art Institute of Antwerp) under Issidore Opsomer and Eduard Pellens (1923-1930). He evolved from the heavy brushstrokes of his teacher Opsomer to an Impressionist sensitivity to light. His paintings include still lifes, female nudes, and religious works. He idealized his subjects. The slender figures and silhouettes are reminiscent of the Florentine painters of the Quattrocento. He
