Set Of Georg Jensen Crystal Glasses For Rosenthal

280 EUR

Signature : GEORG JENSEN

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

An elegant set of crystal glasses resulting from the collaboration between renowned Danish designer Georg Jensen and the prestigious German manufacturer Rosenthal. This set is distinguished by its modern and refined aesthetic, typical of Scandinavian design from the 1960s and 70s. The glasses feature a tall, clean cylindrical shape, resting on a short metal stem attached to a square base--an iconic visual signature of this collection. This unusual combination of the transparency of the crystal and the simplicity of the metal creates an elegant and architectural contrast. The crystal's exceptional clarity enhances the drinks while offering a beautiful ring and a comfortable grip. Their slender silhouette makes them ideal for serving cocktails or other fine beverages.
