Description

a fine 19th-century mahogany revolving bookcase with an iron base and a beautiful top featuring an inlaid and a medallion. Bookcases with iron bases are highly sought after, as the iron base provides a better stability. Furthermore, this bookcase stands out by its three tiers. This is our first three-tiered iron base. It has a beautiful wood marquetry medallion and a lemonwood inlay . This large and unusual model allows for the display of large books, which is rarely the case. square revolving bookcase rotates on a base with casters. The bookcase has a superb patina and is in excellent condition. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
