Description

Superb and elegant terracotta sculpture by Édouard Cazeaux (1889-1974), a French sculptor and ceramist best known for his Art Deco ceramic works. This sculpture depicts a young, nude woman kneeling, holding an offering of flowers and fruit. The young woman's face is typical of the 1930s and 40s, with a classic hairstyle of the period. Presented as a project or study, this piece includes traces of glaze and is signed "Cazeaux" on the base. A high-quality work in very good condition.
