Description

Modernist rosewood sideboard with four doors and four drawers, dating from the 1960s/1970s. The base is made of square-section black lacquered steel, with hard plastic glides that imitate brass. The entire length of the top is highlighted by a black metal trim that covers the upper edges of the doors when they are closed. Both the doors and drawers are fitted with minimalist black metal knobs. In very good condition, the piece has been restored by our specialist. Dimensions: W 240 cm x D 50 cm x H 85 cm. Usable depth: 39 cm. Drawers: H 8 cm x D 40 cm. A slight halo effect and minor lightening remain on the top. These are more or less noticeable depending on the viewing angle and ambient light (normal wear). View this modernist rosewood sideboard in full screen on
