Description

We are offering for sale this spectacular 19th-century clock, specifically from the Louis Philippe period (1830-1848). It is made of gilt bronze in some parts, patinated bronze for the upper section, and features a white marble base. It is in very good condition. The beautifully decorated dial bears the maker's signature from Paris. The design is inspired by the agricultural world (plow, flail, beehive). The clock and its mechanism are in excellent condition. Shipping is extra (EUR26).
