Description

A charming little Louis XVI style console table resting on two tapered, fluted legs ending in toupie feet. The curved apron features a simple yet elegant design with a functional central drawer adorned with a rosette knob. The entire piece is lacquered in an ivory tone with a subtle crackle effect, highlighting its decorative character. The top is finished with a veined green marble slab, molded around the edge and cut to follow the flowing lines of the structure. The sides of the console are curved and accentuated by a decorative metal frieze. This small piece of furniture is distinguished by its delicate and airy appearance, ideal as a vanity in an entryway, boudoir, vestibule, bedroom, or elegant bathroom. It could accommodate a washbasin.Easy to integrate into a classic or contemporary interior, it
