Description

Elegant Italian bookcase dating from the late 18th century, crafted in finely lacquered wood and enriched with original gilded decorations. The architectural composition is defined by fluted columns with decorated capitals, giving the piece a balanced classical character and an impressive visual presence.

The upper section features a richly carved and gilded frieze, while the interior is fitted with spacious open shelves, ideal for displaying books or collectible objects. The lower section includes paneled doors adorned with raised geometric motifs and gilded details.

A piece of outstanding craftsmanship and decorative value, perfectly suited for prestigious interiors, libraries, or refined classical settings. Very good condition, with an authentic patina
