

Louis XV Folding Cabinet

5 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Walnut

Description

Elegant flap veneered in walnut, Louis XV. The piece of furniture is characterized by refined workmanship with rich veined designs and a wavy shape on the front and side. The upper shelf folds down, concealing an internal writing compartment. Six small drawers are placed under the flap, useful as storage space or stationery. On the upper floor there is a further compartment that opens. The lower part is composed of three large drawers shaped on the front, decorated with finely crafted bronze handles and escutcheons, contemporary with the rest of the furniture. The spotlight is embellished with wavy feet.
