Description

Small English Sterling Silver Bowl - Sterling - 19th Century
Charming small bowl in sterling silver (925) of English origin, bearing its hallmarks. Simple and elegant shape with the engraved monogram "E.W.", typical of British silverware from the late 19th to early 20th century. These small silver bowls were versatile objects, used both:- at the table (salt shaker, sugar bowl, or condiment dish)- and on a dressing table for soap, ointment, or accessories.
Sterling silver (925) England, circa 1880-1920
A beautiful piece of antique silverware, decorative and functional.
