Description

An exceptional and rare set comprising the punch and its hardened steel die for making military uniform buttons. The central decoration, finely chased, features an arrow passing through a ring, framed by oak leaves (emblematic of the Artillery or a technical corps). The pieces are marked "NBS," numbered 35159, and size 21. These objects are of rare precision and in perfect condition. A distinctive set for a cabinet of curiosities or a collector of militaria and antique buttons.
