Description

An elegant set consisting of three antique cups, including a liturgical chalice, displaying a beautiful decorative harmony and an authentic patina of time. In the center, an antique religious chalice, probably from the 19th century, combining a silver cup and a base in bronze or gilt metal. Its baluster stem adorned with a central knot and its engraved base attest to goldsmithing work intended for liturgical use. On the left, a charming footed cup in solid silver, hallmarked 800 (hallmark present), with elegant and balanced lines, typical of European goldsmithing from the late 19th or early 20th century. On the right, a cup in gilt metal or brass, with a profile reminiscent of traditional liturgical chalices, offering a beautiful decorative presence thanks to its warm patina. This set constitutes both an interesting
