Description

The rationalist elegance of the 1930s finds its ultimate expression in this imposing dry bar by Oswaldo Borsani, a prestigious ABV (Arredamenti Borsani Varedo) production. Crafted from fine maple wood, the piece stands out for its central body adorned with panels carved in bas-relief, depicting sinuous female figures that evoke the timeless charm of Art Deco. Upon opening, the cabinet reveals a world of luxury: an integrated lighting system enhances a sophisticated interplay of beveled mirrors and carvings. The interior, meticulously organized, features trays with handles, niches, and small drawers, making it a masterpiece of aesthetic functionality. The structure rests scenographically on two carved dolphins, set atop a solid marble base. With dimensions of 150x190x50 cm, this
