Description

A beautiful, large early 20th-century earthenware toilet pitcher decorated with a carmine glaze featuring scrolls and flowers, highlighted by generous white and gold friezes with a garland motif. The highly stylized handle is reminiscent of the 1930s, and the quality of this piece speaks for itself, both in its design and its craftsmanship. A truly striking piece, its size and chic, cheerful decoration are sure to impress. It is in perfect condition and highly ornamental.
