

Antique Reliquary With A Relic Of "ss. Pluri. Mm." - 18th Century

300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Width : 5.5 cm

Height : 6.2 cm

Description

Oval reliquary containing a relic identified by the label "SS. Pluri. MM." (Sanctorum plurimorum Martyrum - relics of several holy martyrs). The reliquary consists of a central compartment under glass surrounded by metal filigree wirework and small glass stones. The interior is decorated with textile brocade and gilt wire forming baroque ornamental motifs, with a small relic fragment mounted on gauze. The front shows a wax or plaster relief medallion depicting three standing figures. Devotional monastic work typical of 18th-century reliquaries.

Dimensions: 5.5 × 6.2 cm

Period: 18th century

Condition: signs of age and use, visible wear and small losses to the decoration; see photographs.

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Tel : email : aze@pandora.be

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740