Description

"L'Épée" Venetian Officer's Clock with Moon Phases - France - 20th Century. This L'Épée travel clock is equipped with an 8-day mechanical movement. Its polished brass case features beveled glass. This Venetian model incorporates the most complete L'Épée 21 movement: it includes a striking mechanism, a repeater on demand, moon phases, day, date, and an alarm. L'Épée officer's clocks made in France, although highly prized, are increasingly rare in good condition. French L'Épée clocks were manufactured in Sainte-Suzanne. They bear the L'Épée hallmark on the back plate. Mechanical movement, 8-day power reserve: - hour display, - hour and half-hour striking, - repeater function (push-button), - alarm, - date display, - day of the week display. Supplied with a brass key. Mint
