

Le Verre Français Plum Vase

2 200 EUR

Signature : Charles Schneider

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Glass

Height : 31

Description

Ovoid Vase "Prune" - Le Verre Français, attributed to Charles Schneider. Ovoid vase in multi-layered glass with acid-etched decoration depicting brown plums on a deep red background. Produced by Le Verre Français and attributed to Charles Schneider. Signed LE VERRE FRANÇAIS with a stylus under the base. Height: 31 cm. Condition: Excellent. Gallery view. This iconic vase from Le Verre Français perfectly illustrates the decorative aesthetic of the Art Deco period. The stylized plum motif, rendered in rich brown tones against a deep red background, creates a particularly warm and decorative contrast, enhanced by a few striking green highlights. The acid-etched multi-layered glass technique allows for extremely precise decoration, characteristic of the remarkable

Dealer

Galerie dMdB

Carefully selected art of quality and originality

Mobile : +32476882717

De Merodelei 275

Turnhout 2300

craftsmanship developed by Charles Schneider in the 1920s. The elegant ovoid form beautifully frames the floral composition that unfolds across the entire surface of the vase. Highly decorative, this piece has a remarkable presence and stands as a fine example of the artistic and technical excellence of French glassmaking during the Art Deco period. Careful shipping. Please feel free to contact us for any further information or additional photographs.