Description

An elegant pair of glazed ceramic vases in the Art Nouveau style, dating from the late 19th to early 20th century. These pieces feature a superb glaze in graduated shades of celadon and olive green, enhanced by a relief decoration of a stylized flower in golden yellow tones. The flowing, organic lines, along with the openwork handles harmoniously integrated into the silhouette, perfectly illustrate the aesthetics of the Art Nouveau movement. The base is adorned with a raised floral motif in a more intense tone, adding depth and contrast to the whole. The quality of the glazing and the finesse of the modeling testify to remarkable craftsmanship. Highly decorative, these vases can be displayed as mantelpiece decorations, on a console table, or incorporated into a refined interior. Dimensions: Height: 30 cm
