Description

Revolutionize your environment with an authentic piece of design history. This exclusive pair of polished steel ceiling lights, dating back to the late 70s, perfectly embodies the German Space Age aesthetic: a fusion of futuristic boldness and geometric precision.Crafted with a high-quality steel structure, these lamps are more than just light fixtures; they are true kinetic sculptures. The mirror finish reflects the surrounding space, visually expanding the room while adding a touch of sophisticated avant-garde industrial elegance. Thanks to the integrated LED technology, you can enjoy efficient and atmospheric lighting without compromising the object's vintage charm.With a 40x40 cm base and a maximum footprint of 60x60 cm, these ceiling lights are ideal for those seeking a high-impact
