Description

Standing man, Louis Philippe period, in solid cherry wood. This model is known as a "doucine" style, typical of this cornice design. Comprising two doors and two drawers, this piece is in very good condition. Only a thorough cleaning and a patina were required. The interiors have a "glazed" finish. The locks and keys are functional, and the feet are a variation of traditional sabots. H 205 cm D 65 cm W 122 cm (cornice level). Shipping included for France.
