Description

A beautiful and interesting Art Deco vase by the Muller Brothers in Lunéville. A collector's piece with a lovely, refined design, decorated with a deep midnight blue powder layer and intertwined gold and silver leaf spangles on the upper part of the vase. The glassmaking technique is superb, with colors that strongly reflect the light. It has a flared, top-shaped form on a small foot and a straight neck. Signed with a stylus on the side, typical of the Art Deco period, it was therefore produced around 1925. 13.5 cm high, 19.5 cm in diameter, in perfect condition. A beautiful Art Deco piece for the collector.
