Description

Restoration period side table/pedestal table. The molded top is enhanced by the frame, creating a sense of juxtaposition. The substantial yet understated thickness contrasts with the delicate base. Its tripod form is light and controlled, like a whip crack. The whole is connected by two slender, elongated columns, creating a mise en abyme effect. Each element is balanced and meticulously turned. It transcends its own style and era. This side table possesses stability, aesthetic appeal, and simplicity. A rare model. Delivery not included in the price.
