Description

Victor Cuguen (1882-1969) "Flower Market in Toulon" Oil on cardboard, Signed lower left, Titled and artist's address on the back. A beautiful work by the Toulon painter, Victor Cuguen, depicting a view of the flower-laden stalls of the flower market on the Cour Lafayette in Toulon. The artist used a palette of vibrant colors and played with impasto techniques applied with a palette knife to give depth to his composition. Victor Louis Cuguen was born in Pontorson in the Manche department. He participated in the Salon des Indépendants from 1922 to 1940, exhibiting landscapes. He settled in Toulon and became a member of the Friends of the Arts of the Var, participating in numerous exhibitions. He painted lively landscapes of Toulon and its surroundings using a vibrant color palette.
