Description

Charles X side table. The wide, quarter-round gallery of the top creates a harmonious whole. The frame appears to float. The dovetailed apron reveals the cabinetmaker's skill. The gracefully curved leg, formed with delicate counter-curves, is a marvel. The stretcher, joined with turned blocks, enhances a tabletop of both thickness and movement. The bronze knob provides the only contrast. This refined, rounded piece is easy to bring into your home. A rare find. Delivery possible, but not included in the price.
