Description

This 18th-century writing desk is crafted from solid oak. Its front features a large drop-front and two large drawers, each with its original, elegant iron handles. When the drop-front is opened, it reveals a hinged opening mechanism and an organized interior with 15 compartments and two central drawers, providing ample storage. This piece, which comes directly from a private residence, is presented in good overall condition. It retains its antique patina and the marks of time that attest to its authenticity and history.
